THE PENSION LIST.

The Stupendous Figures to Which the Total Reaches.

DISCUSS AND NEWS FROM WASHINGTON

All of It Interesting to the People of the Country.

THE SILVER BATTLE COMING ON

Mr. Cleveland Holding His Counsel About Cabinet Appointments—Why Whitehall Is Sad.

Washington, January 9.—(Special.)—Thirteen million dollars is the estimate at which Commissioner of Pensions Raum places the deficiencies in pensions for the current fiscal year. It will be recollected that the treasury department some time ago estimated these deficiencies at ten millions. Thus this matter has increased by three millions. The total pension expenditures for the year $158,000,000, and the estimates for pensions next year $165,000,000. Raum admitted that these figures were necessary estimates, and they might be enlarged as the new fiscal year advanced, in that event creating another deficiency. From the best information obtainable in this matter, it is regarded as certain that the pensions will cost during the fiscal year, ending June 30, 1894, not less than $175,000,000. To this sum, enormous as it is, must be added the amounts paid out for the maintenance of soldiers' homes, cemeteries and battle-field parks, thus swelling the total amount to be expended for the coming fiscal year to nearly $200,000,000. It is no wonder that the overburdened and tax-ridden people try out against this financial burden, and insist upon relief being afforded. There is not the slightest doubt but several millions, perhaps many millions, could be saved to the people by a thorough weeding out of the pension list. There are unquestionably many cases of fraudulent pensions, and many other cases where pensions have been granted to people who do not stand in the slightest need of them, and all such cases should be ferreted out and stricken from the rolls. There is one simple provision which, if enacted and strictly carried out, would do more in this direction than a thousand agents in the field, and that is to publish the pension list once a year in the county newspapers of the United States, and to print printed lists of pensioners in some conspicuous places in the postoffices, throughout the country. This publicity would injure no honest pensioner, but it would bring about the detection of the fraudulent pensions and those unnecessarily receiving pensions. Its adoption would be the first practical step toward a reform which cannot be much longer postponed.

The honest pensioners throughout the country should insist upon the adoption of the measure as a matter of self-protection. The danger to them is that, if no relief can be afforded the masses of the people, they will rise up some day and practically abolish the whole list, carrying the honest and deserving pensioners down with the dishonest and undeserving.

Tom Watson Gets the Laugh.

Tom Watson occupied the attention of the house today in several ways.

First, he introduced a hare-brained proposition to create the office of national inspector of cotton and grain, to provide for the issuance of certificates of deposit and for the issuance of postoffice money orders thereon, and to provide for the payment of such orders.

Then, when a bill to promote the efficiency of the militia came up, he took the floor, and in his speech made several of his characteristic breaks. Among other things, he said, with a wave of his two hands, "and Mr. Speaker, this bill carries an appropriation of a hundred million dollars," and was about to tell of the oppression of the people in his true calamity, stump-speech style, when a better informed member whispered to him, and he corrected his statement by saying: "A million dollars, Mr. Speaker, a million."

Here Boutelle, of Maine, said, sarcastically: "Oh, be generous, and make it a hundred million." This raised a great laugh at Watson's expense.

Boutelle then took the floor and convicted Watson of ignorance of the constitution, laws and history of the country.

Tom's third claim to notice today came when the answer of Major J. C. C. Black, the gentleman who walked Tom last fall, to Tom's contest for the seat was filed with Watson by Major George T. Barnes, of Augusta, Black's attorney.

This is the second chapter of a case which is, as sure, to use phrase of a leader in the house, "to be laughed out of court as the sun shines."

It May Be Blount.

The Evening Star says: "Senator Carlisle has consented to enter Mr. Cleveland's cabinet as secretary of the treasury."

It is the purpose of Mr. Cleveland to appoint two other members of his cabinet from the south. These will be to the attorney-generalship and to either the postoffice department or to the department of agriculture. It is said that Georgia can have one of the two last named places, if a man for the place can be agreed on.

It Blount is selected, he will probably be made postmaster general.

Chief of the Senate.

The promotion of Henry Cabot Lodge to the senate, which is assured by the result of the republican caucus in Massachusetts last week, will send into that body one of the most brilliant and interesting figures in the present house.

Mr. Lodge, however, notwithstanding his brilliancy, has in many respects disappointed those who admired him. He made his first entrance into public life, like James G. Blaine, he suffers from the belief that he is lamentably inferior. When he was first elected to congress he had a reputation as a legislator, based principally upon his two volumes in the American statesman series, or the "Life of Alexander Hamilton" and the "Life of Thomas Jefferson."

As these two statesmen had always held the most diametrical opposite views on the theory of government in the American republic it was hardly possible that the author of their lives could do justice to both. Lodge was, in fact, a great admirer of Hamilton and of Hamilton's paternalistic schemes of government, and his life of Jefferson is, therefore, considered simply a criticism of the great founder of the democratic party from the Hamiltonian standpoint. Nevertheless, Mr. Lodge made great pretensions to impartiality and independence of political thought and when he entered congress it was supposed that he would be what he represented himself to be, honest by no party ties. He has developed into the most radical of radical republicans. Men with memories are disposed to shake their heads ominously when they contemplate his present attitude upon the issues of the hour. They do not need to go back very far to find cause for their disapproval of Mr. Lodge, and their doubts as to his sincerity. In 1876 this student of politics was an ardent supporter of Samuel J. Tilden for the presidency. He left his party because he said he believed that it was preaching a theory with respect to the people of the south which he could not sympathize with. In a speech at Lowell he had approved of one of the reasons for supporting Mr. Tilden that he had no sympathy with the force bill nor the force bill idea which Butler had tried to pass in the house, or with the principles which President Grant and party congressmen had adopted in the reconstruction of the south. Yet, four years later, after the problems then intensely vexatious had been practically solved, Mr. Lodge stood on the same floor which General Butler had occupied as the sponsor of a party advocating more drastic and menacing force bill for the control of popular elections than that framed and championed by the chameleon statesman from Massachusetts.

MR. BLAINE AGAIN SINKING.

He Takes a Bad Turn at Midnight—The End Is Near.

Washington, January 10, 1 a. m.—Mr. Blaine, after having rallied during the day and showing a much improved condition, directly after midnight took a turn for the worse, and is rapidly growing weaker. His death is surely not far off.

At 2:10 o'clock everything about the Blaine mansion is very quiet. The lights are dim, and there is no evidence of the approaching dissolution of the patient.

WASHINGTON GOSSIP.

The President Abandons His Trip—In the Committee Rooms.

Washington, January 9.—Owing to the severity of the weather the president has abandoned his proposed hunting trip for the present.

The treasury department today purchased $57,000 ounces of silver at $8.82 1/2.

The house committee on banking and currency has ordered a favorable report on the bill to amend the act of March 3, 1879, providing for the issuance of silver certificates.

The bill, as reported, repeals the Sherman law for the purchase of bullion. There is a strong suspicion on the part of the democrats that the bill is a carefully planned trap. At any rate they decided to take no chances, and so Mr. Daniel objected to Mr. Aldrich's request that it be voted upon and passed.

POLITICS OUT WEST.

Populists of Montana Receive Instructions from Headquarters

NOT TO VOTE FOR A DEMOCRAT,

In Order to Force a Compromise in the Senatorial Election.

KANSAS POPULISTS HOLD A CAUCUS

And Decide to Run One of Their Own Party for the Senate—A Deal in Wyoming—Other Political News.

Helena, Mont., January 9.—Within the past twenty-four hours three populists in the legislature have received instructions from the leaders of the party, presumably from Washington, not to vote for a democrat for United States senator under any circumstances. It is also stated that the populists in Wyoming and California have received the same instructions, with the view of preventing the democrats from securing an absolute majority in the senate. By holding out, the populists hope to get into a position to force the democrats into promising some radical legislation on silver. It is known that two of the Montana populists intend to obey the request which has come from the east, but the third, Beecher, has made no promise, and because he is in a position to elect a democrat a great deal of worry is felt as to his attitude. He walked out of the house with the democrats last Tuesday and has more than once said that he would vote for a democrat for senator.

The republicans are hard at work trying to get him to promise to be neutral at least for the first few ballots, but he keeps his own counsel.

ORDWAY WILL NOT RUN

And the Friends of Casey Are Rejoicing—The North Dakota Senatorship.

Bismarck, N. D., January 9.—A private dispatch from Washington announces that ex-Governor Ordway has concluded not to make a fight for the senate ship. One of his friends in the legislature made a canvass and discovered that he could not secure more than six votes, and that the message from Bismarck would be wholly useless. Smith, of Fargo, has also gone home, but it is announced that he will return Monday. The friends of Casey are jubilant, and announce that they have twenty-five votes pledged, and that the senator will certainly be nominated in the caucus.

It is not believed, however, that there will be any caucus. Only the supporters of Casey want a caucus.

WILL STICK TO A THIRD PARTY MAN.

Kansas Populists Hold a Caucus and Make a Decision.

Topeka, Kas., January 9.—The populist leaders, at a caucus held last night, decided that the populist support in the contest for senator should be given to "a middle-of-the-road" candidate. That is, they decided that Judge John Martin was not an available candidate. Martin has been looked upon heretofore as a possible fusion candidate, he having been responsible for effecting a fusion between the populists and democrats. The democrats are very much put out over the action of the populist caucus, and the chances are that the five members of the legislature, who held the balance of power, will stand firm for a compromise candidate.

WARM IN WYOMING.

Talk of a Deal Between the Populists and Republicans.

Cheyenne, Wyo., January 9.—The political pot is beginning to boil in Wyoming. A deal is being talked of between the populists and republicans to elect DeForest Richard, a republican, to the senate. Another combination claimed to have been made is that of the republicans and some democrats and populists favoring G. W. Baxter.

Corn, of Evanston, has a small bomb, as have Holliday, of Laramie, and Beck. Cadwell appears to do most of the work, and people who know his ability as a politician put much confidence in him. It is settled, however, that the populists, democrats and populists will organize the legislature, and whether they will continue together remains to be seen.

THE TEXAS REMATORSHIP.

John Ireland Consulting with Governor Hogg—Mills' Friends Working.

Austin, Tex., January 9.—The race for United States senator is assuming a very interesting aspect. John Ireland has been in the city for a week cloaked with Governor Hogg, and it is known he is after the place. Speculation is rife as to whether Hogg will assist him. Hogg has great influence with the present legislature, and as he is against Mills it may be said that he will do all in his power to compass his defeat, but Hogg is almost in duty bound to support Ireland for the senate. Hogg has spent the greater part of the last two months with Terrell on his farm south of Austin. If Hogg does not run himself, which is doubtful, he will probably assist Terrell.

Mills' friends hope to have two candidates to fight, which will assure Mills' election.

THEY BROKE THE DEADLOCK.

Democrats and Populists Organize the Colorado Senate.

Denver, Col., January 9.—The deadlock in the senate was broken this afternoon by the combination of populists and democrats. The terms of the deal had not been completed this morning, as the populists thought the democrats were asking too much, but terms acceptable to both sides were agreed upon, and the senate recessed, and immediately on convening this afternoon the proceeded to the election of a secretary, and Kennedy, the democratic candidate, was elected by twenty to fifteen votes. For sergeant at arms Cummings, the populist candidate, was elected. The minor offices were divided between the two parties.

Looks Well for Faulkner.

Charleston, W. Va., January 9.—Indications at present seem favorable for the reelection of Senator Faulkner. Ex-Senator Camden is here, but does not seem to have developed as much strength as his friends anticipated.

McCreary a Candidate.

Frankfort, Ky., January 9.—The members of the legislature received a letter from Congressman James B. McCreary, dated Washington, January 6th, stating that he will be a candidate for the United States senate and saying he hopes his experience as a legislator, governor and eight years in congress has equipped him for the duties of senator.

They Are All Populists.

Topeka, Kan., January 9.—The state government was formally surrendered today to the new officers, all populists. The ceremony took place in the hall of the house of representatives and was witnessed by probably the greatest crowd that has ever assembled in Kansas on a similar occasion.

ELECTORS CAST THEIR VOTES.

story from Macon that Miss Susie

Matheson, a pretty young lady of this city, ran away last Saturday and went to Macon to join Deshon's Opera Company, and that she was followed there by her mother and brought back to Augusta, is denied by that lady. She says she never left Au-of going with Deshon and has no desire to go upon the stage. Her conduct indicates that such a story should get out about her.

Augusta, Ga., January 9.—(Special).—

Robert Wright, a negro boy and a mean beast, was caught by the police this morning. Bob was arrested and went to Macon yesterday and got in a quarrel with a crowd of negroes on Center street and pulled his pistol on the crowd, breaking the lock of the street and Mr. W. H. Barrett, Jr., who was going to church with his wife, ordered him to turn his pistol the other way so

Mrs. Barrett could pass. Instead of obeying, the negro turned his pistol upon

Mr. Barrett and threatened to shoot him or Mrs. Barrett if they said anything to him. The negro ran off, but got away until this morning when he was captured.

Mrs. Thomas G. Barrett is critically ill. Her condition is such that she is expected to die.

pack for $1,000 a side. A forfeit has been placed. This test will be interesting to SUFFER pain and distress and drag out a miserable existence, going from bed to work, unless you obtain relief. For all above troubles Stuart's Gin and Buchu is a medicine of known value. Unlike some remedies a dozen bottles are not taken to decide the question of benefit.

Atlanta, Ga.—My wife has been a great sufferer from kidney troubles for many years. At times she has been "housed up," suffering acute pain in side and back. She obtained no relief from treatment until she took STUART'S GIN AND BUCHU. I consider it the best medicine in the world.

BONDS FORFEITED.

Several Defendants Failed to Appear in Court Yesterday.

TRIAL OF THE EDITORS TOMORROW

The Trial of Sarah Johnson Was Set for Next Thursday Morning—An Interesting Session of the Court.

The trial of the two well-known editors did not occur yesterday morning. It was set for a hearing tomorrow at 9 o'clock and will come up then without fail.

First Session of the Court.

The first session of the criminal branch of the superior court for the year 1893, occurred yesterday morning.

Judge Clark was on the bench and he appeared to be greatly refreshed by his Christmas vacation.

Solicitor Hill was also on deck, and was in a capital good humor.

The court met at the usual hour and there was quite a large number of witnesses present.

It was perhaps the largest attendance of witnesses that the courtroom has held in several months.

The reason of this unusual attendance was due to the fact that a great many bonded cases were set for a hearing this week, and the witnesses were all required to be present yesterday.

Several Bonds Forfeited.

Several defendants who had given their bonds yesterday to appear and plead their defense at the proper time failed to put in their appearance.

The result of this failure was a forfeiture of their bonds and a severe scolding on the part of the court.

Among the number who thus failed to show up and who in consequence have forfeited their bonds are:

Pool South, charged with assaulting Leonard Williams, with intent to commit murder.

Luke Smith and Dan Daly, also charged with assault with intent to commit a murder.

R. A. Weaver, larceny after trust.

W. F. George, and W. W. Proust, larceny after trust.

A. McC. Nixon and J. M. P. Lindsey, also charged with larceny after trust.

Captain W. M. Crim, charged with the crime of kidnapping. The case is a very familiar one to the public.

J. B. Brown, J. L. Height, and John Waters, charged with assault with intent to murder.

Suits Ready for Trial.

The state yesterday morning announced ready in about seventy cases. Of this number forty were bonded cases and the balance were jail cases.

Out of the total number of bonded cases fully twenty defendants failed to show up and their bonds were consequently forfeited.

Only one defendant in the whole lot was ready for trial and that was a case of assault with intent to murder.

Several cases were set for a trial tomorrow. The case of the state against Sarah Johnson for assault with intent to commit a murder by poisoning the family of Mr. P. Romare was set for a hearing next Thursday morning.

Trial of the Editors.

The trial of the two young editors for assault with intent to commit a murder was set for tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock.

It will come up tomorrow sure. The defendants in the case are Messrs. G. N. Hurtel and Jack Hastings. Mr. Alf Harper is also a defendant in the case, but since the difficulty occurred Mr. Harper has moved out of the city.

He will be here tomorrow morning in time to answer the charges that are brought against him.

The present session of the court promises to be one of lively interest.

The great value of Hood's Sarsaparilla as a remedy for catarrh is vouched for by thousands of people whom it has cured.

Angostura Bitters is known all over the world as the great regulator of digestive organs. Dr. Siegert's is the only genuine. At all druggists.
